

PHIA.

ings and dryings, as the parts the digestive faculty, it seems, ner to work upon those stub-form. rap of Saw-dust or chips this of Time) conveys into its in-ire the excellent contrivance is continually nourished and stomach, and fomented by the the most admirable fabrick of d wasting of that fire, to be g more materials to augment be the principal end of all the

of a Flea.

reature, had it no other rela-escription.
o make no greater discoveries rious contrivance of its leggs very plainly manifested, such has any thing like it; for the vere, fold them short one with-hem out to their whole length, the 34. Scheme, lies within B, ide each other; but the parts D without E, and E with-the hinder leggs, G, H and I, of a double jointed Ruler, or ese six leggs he clitches up al-all out, and thereby exerts pe manifests it to be all over able Armour, neatly jointed, hap'd almost like Porcupine's e head is on either side beau-s, behind each of which also ms to move to and fro a cerrent hairs, which probably may etween the two fore-leggs, be r smellers, M M, which have eral other creatures; between O, that seems to consist of a tube,

